

ARCHWAY ACADEMY INDEPENDENT SCHOOL
ANTI - BULLYING POLICY

Introduction

Archway Academy seeks to provide and maintain a safe and supportive environment in which effective learning and participation can take place. Bullying is in direct opposition to the aims and intentions of Archway Academy. Preventing and tackling bullying is one of the ways by which the school safeguards children and young people.

Definition

Bullying is defined as any behaviour by an individual or group, repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally.

Bullying can take many forms, for instance:

- physical - pushing, kicking, hitting, punching or any use of violence;
- emotional - being unfriendly, excluding, tormenting (e.g. hiding books, threatening gestures);
- racist - racial taunts, graffiti, gestures;
- sexual - unwanted physical contact or sexually abusive comments;
- homophobic - because of, or focussing on the issue of sexuality;
- verbal - name-calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours, teasing;
- cyber - All areas of internet, such as email & internet chat room misuse;
- mobile phone threats (by text messaging & calls).

Bullying is often motivated by prejudice against particular groups, for example on grounds of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, or because a child is adopted or has caring responsibilities. It might be motivated by actual differences between children, or perceived differences.

Some pupils are particularly vulnerable to bullying and may be severely affected by it, such as:

- those with special educational needs or disabilities;
- those that are going through a personal or family crisis, or suffering from a health problem;
- children in care who are frequently on the move, hence they are always the newcomer;
- those with caring responsibilities, because they are socially isolated.

Guiding principles

Bullying in all its forms verbal or physical, manifest or insidious is unacceptable and will not be tolerated at Archway Academy.

Management and staff at Archway Academy are committed to the prevention of bullying; however, should it ever occur, rigorous and robust procedures are in place to tackle it immediately.

All pupils are encouraged to speak up if they are being bullied. This unequivocal message is shared throughout the pupil's time in school, from induction and beyond. Pupils understand and are reminded during induction that they should talk to a trusted adult in the school if they are being bullied. They are also encouraged to tell a member of staff if they know of someone is being bullied.

This policy has been developed with reference to the following guidelines:

- Preventing and Tackling Bullying (DFE 2017)
- Supporting children and young people who are bullied: advice for schools (DFE 2014.)
- Cyber bullying: advice for head teachers and school staff (DFE 2014)
- Advice for parents and carers on cyber bullying (DFE 2014)
- Every Child Matters (The Children Act 2004)
- Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2018)
- The Equality Act 2010

Signs and Symptoms of Bullying

Management and staff at Archway Academy should be vigilant and look out for signs and symptoms of bullying. A child may indicate by signs or behaviour that he or she is being bullied. Adults (staff, parents, guardians, carers) should investigate if a child:

- is frightened of walking to or from school;
- doesn't want to go on the school / public bus;
- begs to be driven to school;
- changes their usual routine;
- is unwilling to go to school (school phobic);
- begins to truant;
- becomes withdrawn anxious, or lacking in confidence;
- starts stammering;
- attempts or threatens suicide or runs away;
- cries themselves to sleep at night or has nightmares;
- feels ill in the morning;
- begins to do poorly in school work;
- comes home with clothes torn or books damaged;
- has possessions which are damaged or " go missing";
- asks for money or starts stealing money (to pay bully);
- has dinner or other monies continually "lost";
- has unexplained cuts or bruises;
- comes home starving (money / lunch has been stolen);

- is afraid to use the internet or mobile phone;
- is nervous & jumpy when a cyber- message is received.

These signs and behaviours could indicate other problems, but bullying should be considered a possibility and should be investigated.

An environment has been created that makes it easier for management and staff to be vigilant:

- all pupils are taught in small groups making it easier for Tutors to notice when individuals change their behaviour;
- all staff sit together with pupils during their breaks and monitor them when they are outside, so increasing their chance of observing signs of bullying.

Bullying outside school premises

Where bullying outside school is reported to school staff, it should be investigated and acted on. The Proprietor & Executive Managing Director will also consider whether it is appropriate to notify the police or anti-social behaviour coordinator in their local authority of the action taken against a pupil. If the misbehaviour could be criminal or poses a serious threat to a member of the public, the police should always be informed.

Preventative Procedures

Archway Academy maintains that the implementation of the following strategies is conducive to reinforcing the anti-bullying policy:

- promoting equality of opportunity amongst all learners throughout all school activities by taking into account learners different individual needs;
- fostering good relationships by teaching respect and responsibility for self and others;
- adopting a zero tolerance for discrimination, harassment and victimisation;
- providing information and guidance through the curriculum, at induction and beyond to ensure that learners know how to proceed if they or someone else is bullied within the school and outside the school premises;
- promoting caring and gentleness;
- teaching appropriate assertiveness, especially through the medium of sport;
- providing firm, clear and consistent standards of behaviour;
- maintaining a predictable, regular routine for everyday life;
- channelling all shows of aggression by distraction and early intervention;
- providing robust supervision of pupils throughout all their activities;
- avoiding exposure to violence at the centre, on video or television as much as possible;
- never allowing aggression to produce beneficial results for learners - it must always have a 'cost' that has to be paid in reparation;
- all staff attend a morning briefing during which safeguarding is always on the agenda – concerns can always be raised to ensure that any potential cases of bullying are investigated.
